ONLINE LOTTERY INDUSTRY PARTNERSHIPS IGAMING

Greentube launches online sports betting and VLT games on Loteriesport.lu

Loteriesport.lu is the online platform of Luxembourg's national lottery.

By Beth Turner

Greentube has launched online sports betting and VLT games on Loteriesport.lu, the Luxembourg national lottery's (Loterie Nationale Luxembourg) online platform.

Powered by the Greentube Plurius server-based gaming solution, the integration of these games onto the Loteriesport.lu platform marks the second phase of plans to enhance the platform. Now, players in Luxembourg will have access to sports betting content similar to that already accessible at retail locations.

The first phase of integration was conducted last year, when the Novomatic Digital Gaming and Entertainment division brought land-based VLT and sports betting terminals to the Luxembourg national lottery. Greentube won its major tender to supply to the lottery with an omnichannel solution in May 2021.

Greentube intends to launch the full Greentube Plurius solution next year, which will provide the lottery with further information regarding player habits and needs.

Currently, the system allows casinos, VLT operators and B2B suppliers to connect their land-based terminals to a central, core system, giving them access to games played on an online server. The system currently hosts close to 60 games, with more expected to come weekly. The core system also allows for cross-channel promotion, player tracking and depositing features.

On the launch, Greentube COO Georg Gubo said: "Our Greentube Plurius technology is designed to create a unified and engaging experience for players across all platforms. We are excited to see it in action on Loteriesport.lu alongside Loterie Nationale Luxembourg and look forward to the full 360 integration later this year."

“ Elsewhere, Greentube has developed a range of partnerships across the industry, with operators including Sunbet, NetBet and Caesars Digital, to name a few Loterie Nationale Luxembourg CEO Léon Losch added: “The launch and continued development of Loteriesport.lu is a pivotal moment for us and we are thrilled to be working alongside Greentube in delivering this evolving digital solution.

“Greentube has a strong reputation as a reliable and experienced technology provider with a proven track record in lottery integrations, so we are confident that this partnership will support our customer base and operator partners’ evolving needs.”

The conversation regarding omnichannel play has been wide-reaching in the gaming industry. At a panel at SiGMA Manila 2024, moderated by NYCE International MD Harmen Brenninkmeijer, Kurt Quartier, President of Tyche Gaming International expressed a feeling that there were “few true examples of omnichannel” on the market, with agreements being vocalised by Jade Group CEO Joe Pisano.

Elsewhere, in our September/ October edition of Gambling Insider magazine, it can be noted that several contributors point to omnichannel only being viable for larger operators, for example in the US, with SCCG Management Founder and CEO Stephen Crystal pointing out how “BetMGM leveraged MGM Resorts’ brick-and-mortar presence for omnichannel experiences.”

Said Ifrah Law Founder Jeff Ifrah, when explaining how smaller operators in the US may benefit from refining their offerings: “If you notice, Betway announced that they were leaving. But, then they announced they’re staying in Michigan and New Jersey on the online casino side. That’s because they recognise that’s a profitable market. Maybe sports aren’t. Maybe we don’t need omnichannel, maybe we don’t need to be able to sell our consumer customers everything.”

Elsewhere, Greentube has developed a range of partnerships across the industry, with operators including Sunbet, NetBet and Caesars Digital, to name a few.

Greentube erweitert digitales Angebot auf Loteriesport.lu mit Loterie Nationale Luxembourg

Greentube, die Digital Gaming and Entertainment-Abteilung von NOVOMATIC, hat mit der Einführung von Online-VLT-Spielen und Sportwetten auf Loteriesport.lu, der digitalen Plattform der luxemburgischen Nationallotterie, einen wichtigen Meilenstein bei seiner europäischen Expansion erreicht.

Diese Weiterentwicklung nutzt die serverbasierte Gaming-Lösung Plurius™ von Greentube, die die nahtlose Integration beliebter Sportwetten-Inhalte auf der Online-Plattform ermöglicht und damit das Erlebnis widerspiegelt, das in Einzelhandelsgeschäften geboten wird. Dies ist die zweite Phase der Integration, die auf der erfolgreichen Einführung landgestützter VLT- und Sportwetten-Terminals im letzten Jahr aufbaut.

Die umfassende Plurius™-Lösung von Greentube, deren vollständige Einführung nächstes Jahr geplant ist, wird der Loterie Nationale Luxembourg verbesserte Produktinformationen liefern, die auf die sich entwickelnden Bedürfnisse ihres Kundenstamms zugeschnitten sind.

Diese Partnerschaft folgt auf den Erfolg von Greentube bei einer Ausschreibung zur Ausstattung der staatlichen Lotterie Luxemburgs mit einer Omnichannel-Lösung. Das Unternehmen ließ dabei andere Mitbewerber aus der Branche hinter sich und sicherte sich den Auftrag.

Der digitale Start ist Teil der umfassenderen Strategie der Loterie Nationale Luxembourg zur digitalen Transformation, die von Greentube Plurius™ unterstützt wird, das landgestützte, Online- und mobile VLT-Gaming-Operationen integriert. Das Plurius™-System ermöglicht es B2B-Anbietern, Casinos und VLT-Betreibern, landgestützte Terminals mit einem Kernsystem zu verbinden und so Spiele auf einem Online-Spieleserver zu ermöglichen. Es bietet außerdem Funktionen wie sichere Einzahlungen, kanalübergreifende Werbeaktionen und umfassende Spielerverfolgung.

Diese Zusammenarbeit unterstreicht Greentubes Engagement, Betreiberpartnern in regulierten Märkten weltweit hochwertige Technologielösungen zu bieten. Die fortschrittlichen Lösungen und Produkte von Greentube werden bereits von mehreren nationalen Lotteriebetreibern in ganz Europa eingesetzt, darunter in Österreich, Griechenland und Norwegen. Als assoziiertes Mitglied der European Lotteries und SCS-zertifiziert von der World Lottery Association sorgt Greentube weiterhin für Innovationen in diesem Sektor.

Derzeit unterstützt Greentube Plurius™ fast 60 Spiele, die sowohl für das landbasierte als auch für das Online-Spielen verfügbar sind. Jede Woche werden gemeinsam mit der Loterie Nationale Luxembourg neue Titel auf den Markt gebracht.

Georg Gubo, COO bei Greentube, sagte: „Unsere Greentube Plurius™-Technologie ist darauf ausgelegt, ein einheitliches und ansprechendes Erlebnis für Spieler auf allen Plattformen zu schaffen. Wir freuen uns, sie auf Loterisport.lu neben der Loterie Nationale Luxembourg im Einsatz zu sehen und freuen uns auf die vollständige 360-Grad-Integration später in diesem Jahr.

Léon Losch, CEO der Loterie Nationale Luxembourg, fügte hinzu: „Die Einführung und kontinuierliche Entwicklung von Loteriesport.lu ist ein entscheidender Moment für uns und wir freuen uns sehr, gemeinsam mit Greentube diese sich weiterentwickelnde digitale Lösung bereitzustellen.

ISTAF 2024: Sporthighlight mit Erinnerungswert

Spielbank Berlin - Garant des ISTAF

Das Internationale Stadionfest (ISTAF) 2024 am Wochenende in Berlin war das Highlight für die Leichtathletik-Stars und Zehntausende Fans. Mehr als 40.000 ZuschauerInnen sahen, wie sich u.a. Gina Lückenkemper in Gala-Form präsentierte, und einen Leo Neugebauer, der noch vom Olympia-Flow beflügelt war. 14 Wettkämpfe für die Profis galt es im Olympiastadion mitzuverfolgen, dazu zahlreiche Nachwuchs-Events, und ein 100-Meter Mixed Rollstuhlfahren standen auf dem Programm. Die Spielbank Berlin gehörte auch in diesem Jahr wieder zu den Hauptsponsoren.

Einer der Höhepunkte aus deutscher Sicht waren die 100-Meter der Frauen. Gina Lückenkemper gewann das Rennen souverän - und das sogar mit einer neuen persönlichen Bestzeit. Mit 10,93 Sekunden verbesserte die Leichtathletin ihre individuelle Bestmarke um zwei hundertstel Sekunden.

Der bei den Olympischen Spielen in Paris frisch gekürte Zehnkampf-Silbermedaillengewinner Leo Neugebauer kam ebenfalls nach Berlin, und nahm an einem spannenden Dreikampf aus den Disziplinen 100-Meter, Diskuswurf und 1500-Meter teil. Am Ende gewann der Weltjahresbeste im Zehnkampf diese völlig neue Disziplin souverän mit 2540 Punkten und stellte bei den 1500-Metern ebenfalls eine neue persönliche Bestleistung mit 4:38,10 Minuten auf. Manuel Eitel, der in Paris 2024 aufgrund einer Corona-Erkrankung nicht teilnehmen konnte, belegte Rang zwei und Andrin Huber aus der Schweiz wurde dritter.

Überraschungssieg beim Kugelstoßen: Jessica Schilder aus den Niederlanden gewann Gold (19,70 Meter) und freute sich über den Pokal, den Gerhard Wilhelm, Sprecher der Geschäftsführung der Spielbank, Berlin überreichte.

Die Spielbank Berlin nimmt bei Athleten, Leichtathletik-Fans und der Berliner Politik eine historische Sonderstellung ein. Ohne die finanzielle Unterstützung der Spielbank Berlin würde es das ISTAF gar nicht mehr geben, wofür Berlin ewig dankbar ist, sagt ISTAF Meetingdirektor Martin Seeber.

Gerhard Wilhelm, Sprecher der Geschäftsführung der Spielbank Berlin, der neben dem Regierenden Bürgermeister von Berlin, Kai Wegner, die Preise an die Gewinner übergab: „Das ISTAF ist das älteste Meeting der Welt. Viele beneiden uns um diese Tradition und den Austragungsort im Olympia Stadion. Immer wieder berührend ist die Emotionalität im Stadion – bei den Sportlern und Sportlerinnen sowie bei den leidenschaftlichen Besuchern. Das ISTAF ist eine sportliche Visitenkarte Berlins“.

Neben dem Regierenden Bürgermeister Kai Wegner trafen sich Bildungssenatorin Katharina Günther-Wünsch, Landessportbund-Chef Thomas Härtel, Vize-Parlamentspräsident Dennis Buchner sowie der Chef des Olympiastadion-Geschäftsführer Timo Rohwedder auf der Ehrentribüne.
